(Portrait by Seeman)

Newlywed Ray L. Blacks Honeymoon in Carmel

Approximately 300 guests assembled at the Torrance Church of God to attend the evening wedding ceremony on Feb. 13, when Miss Yvonne Ott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Ott, 1621 W. 209th St., exchanged her marriage vows with Ray L. Black. Parents of the bridegroom are Rev. and Mrs. Franklin Black, 1565 W. 221st St.

Escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, Mr. Louis E. Shaffer, the bride wore a wedding gown of candlelight satin, fashioned with a lace yoke sprinkled with sequins. The lace formed the top of the skirt to which the full satin skirt, which fell into a three-foot train, was attached. A princess pearl crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling white roses centered by white orchids.

Mrs. Betty Shaffer served as the honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mmes. Jean Utter, Wanda Bargin, Mildred Holman, Sandra Green, and Miss Carolyn Ott. Mrs. Shaffer wore a floor-length empire gown of pale pink crepe. The bridesmaids were in long turquoise gowns and all attendants carried pale pink carnations.

Loretta Ratcliff, in a blue nylon gown and wearing a three tiered veil, was flower girl. Gary Scott carried the rings.

Standing as best man was Chuck L. Sutton. Ushers were Earl Dickerson, Earl Dickerson, Jr., Howard Scott, Ronnie Helton and Rodney Knight.

Rev. Franklin D. Black, father of the bridegroom, officiated at the marriage service. Mrs. Janet Skaggs, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Ronnie Towe, soloist.

A reception followed at the YWCA and a wedding dinner was given for the bridal party.

The honeymoon was spent in Carmel. The new address is 1565 W. 221st St., Torrance.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Narbonne High School. They plan to enter Lee Bible College in Cleveland, Tenn., where Mr. Black will begin his studies for the ministry.

Spring Program Opens At Torrance YWCA

A spring program for physical fitness, hobby and special interest is now opening at the Torrance YWCA.

Several new classes, for all ages, are now opening in addition to the regular program including day and evening classes in teenage and adult guitar, teenage and adult charm.

For the very young, the pre-schooler boy and girl, the popular "Small Fry" class offering acrobatics and rhythm band is open on Wednesday from 2 to 3 p.m.

For little girls, five to seven years, a class in charm is held on Tuesday from 4 to 5. The new class for teenage girls only will be offered from 7 to 8 p.m. in modern interpretive dancing with emphasis on developing the kind of figure every teenage girl wants for the summer season.

The new class for women, designed to develop the long, graceful look, suitable to the new fashions, will be recreational swimming from 11 to 12 noon on Tuesday.

For men and women planning to travel during the summer, a class in Spanish is scheduled. This class meets on Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m.

The class in leatherwork structured to teach basic techniques plus design skills for working beyond the limits of prepared kits, will meet every Monday evening from 7 to 9 p.m.

All classes are limited in size and are now open for registration. Additional information may be secured by calling the Torrance YWCA.

Win Recognition In Scholarship Competition

Marymount College seniors Iona M. Galther and Alexandria A. Ostrowski have received honorable mention in the 1965-66 Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation scholarship competition. They are eligible to receive alternate awards from graduate schools in the United States and Canada.

Forewell Party

A "going-away" party for Miss Virginia Collins, who was leaving for Las Vegas and San Francisco, was given at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance recently by Dan Calabrese of Arlington, N.J. Guests included Miss Kathy Collins and James Sorce.

Each February when PTAs throughout the nation pass out their honorary life awards to persons who have done their stint for youth, it isn't unusual to find an occasional teacher or principal among the community leaders receiving the recognition.

In Torrance more than a few faculty members have been honored over the past 17 years.

But it is unusual when the gal in the school kitchen is singled out for an honorary life membership.

Which is exactly what happened to Mrs. George Holland, cafeteria manager at Hamilton School in North Torrance.

First school cook in Torrance to win the award, Mrs. Holland found her way to student hearts wasn't only through their stomachs. It was the extra favors she performed that won that spot.

Like the time a little girl fell in love with her apple crisp and she wrote out the recipe and mailed it to the girl's mother.

... And the time she bought Valentine candies and tucked them onto lunch trays as a personal gift to each student.

... And the time a science student brought a pair of cow's eyes to school and she found a spot for them in the freezer.

A native Californian, Mrs. Holland is the mother of an El Camino student, Ralph, and has studied at El Camino. She and her husband are ham radio operators and have assisted servicemen all over the world to contact their families.
